

Mathematical modelling aspects of tumour growth

P. MAINI

Centre for Mathematical Biology. Mathematical Institute, Oxford UK

`maini@maths.ox.ac.uk`

Using partial differential equation and cellular automata type models we investigate a number of processes that are believed to be important in tumour growth and invasion. We study the acid-mediated invasion hypothesis, somatic evolution and homeostasis.